

There Is A River

Words & music by Jonathan Reuel, Copyright 2000 Jonathan Reuel.
All rights reserved. Used with permission.

There is a river that flows from the throne of God
He will deliver all those who trust in his love
There is a mountain where I love to go
Drink from the fountain where living waters flow

So won't you let them flow
Won't you let them flow here tonight (repeat)

The angel he took me up from the temple courts
And there I saw water flowing towards the east
Out of the city he led me and out past the gates
The river was flowing ankle deep
He led me farther, farther on, with a measuring line
The water was deeper, deeper now, up to my knees
He measured off another 1500 feet
And the water it rose higher, it was waste deep
One more time he counted off the numbers on his line
And I heard the river roaring and I watched the water rise
And it was deep enough to swim in, it was way too deep to cross
It was raging living water that I wanted nothing more
Than to get lost within
Wash away my sin
I will enter in
I will shed my skin

From the cross it flows to the lost and low
To the hopeless child, freedom free and wild